

Harvard Divinity School

Application for Admission – Resident Fellowship

Harvard Divinity School, Office of the Registrar, 14 Divinity Avenue, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138
617.495.5760 fax: 617.495.0807

Applications are due October 31 for the following year's spring term, March 1 for the following year's fall term

I am applying for admission as a Resident Fellow for the: Fall Term Spring Term of 20_____

Full Name: _____
First Middle Last

Address: _____
Number and Street

Town/City State Zip/Postal Code

Tel (h): _____ Tel (w): _____
Area Code Area Code

Email: _____ Birth Date: _____
Month/Day/Year

Social Security Number: _____ Birth Place: _____

Citizen of: _____

If not a U.S. citizen, are you a permanent resident of the U.S.? Yes No Alien reg. #: _____

For U.S. Citizens only: In connection with affirmative action, Harvard Divinity School wishes to provide equality of opportunity to Resident Fellow applicants of all racial and ethnic identifications. In support of this effort, we request that applicants disclose ethnic and racial identity. Your compliance, of course, is voluntary.

- African American Asian American Native American Puerto Rican
- Chicano or Mexican-American Other Hispanic White Non-Hispanic

Employment history, beginning with current position:

Institution	Dates	Position

Describe your present position, including special interests or emphases: _____

List community and professional associations and awards: _____

List recreational, professional, or intellectual interests and areas of knowledge outside of ministry: _____

Indicate recent in-service training (seminars, workshops, clinical training, summer institutes, etc.): _____

List books, articles, or other materials published: _____

Please list all colleges and graduate schools attended, beginning with the most recent:

Institution	Dates Attended	Degree

Recommendations: Name at least three persons from whom we may expect recommendations:

Personal Statement: Please write and attach a personal statement of approximately 1,000 words. The Resident Fellows selection committee considers the personal statement an integral part of the application and evaluates it very carefully. It should give an account of the applicant's background, perceived needs at this time for his or her development, and objectives for his/her Resident Fellowship, if selected, including reading s/he wishes to do and areas of study s/he wishes to pursue. It should also describe the applicant's view of the particular issues facing the church and ministry today and ideas of how the Resident Fellowship may help him/her address them. Finally, it should include ways in which the applicant imagines that s/he may contribute to the Harvard Divinity School community while here on fellowship.