

D. G. Kelekian
Apr. 16, 1895

PARIS AND CONSTANTINOPLE.

DIKRAN G. KELEKIAN,

Works of Art and Antiquities,

Faïences, Velvets, Embroideries, Rugs, Statuettes, Intaglios.

Premium Awarded in Every Branch
at the World's Columbian Exhibition,
Chicago, 1893. : : : : :

GREEK AND : : : : :
: : ROMAN COINS AND : : :
: : : : ANCIENT JEWELS.

303 FIFTH AVENUE,

New York, April 15th 1895

Prof. W. G. Lyon

Cambridge

Mass.

Dear professor:-

I have the pleasure to announce to you, receiving the order to sell the stone for $1,000.⁰⁰

You cannot imagine how glad I am having that order because this handsome tablet is going where it ought to go.

CABLE ADDRESS: "KELEKIAN."

I hope they will appreciate your kind efforts.

I am sure you will not mention the price to any outsider.

As I am going Saturday
you will greatly oblige me
by sending draft on New York bank which will be more convenient for me.

Hoping for the pleasure to see you on my return, ^{when} I will bring full particulars of the tablet from the proprietor I remain

Very truly yours
Dillon McKim